

F2 SPRING 1

THE BIG QUESTIONS:
Could you, would you live in an igloo?

Exciting Texts:
Houses and homes, Lets build a house. - Non Fiction
Three Little Pigs.—Fiction

My Magical World

We will be learning about:

- * Our home and how other homes are different.
- * Materials and their properties.
- * Constructing with different materials.
- * Chinese New Year and links to other celebrations.
- * Seasonal change.

Home Challenges:
Make a home for your teddy/toy.
Share information about your house with others.
Can you go on a hunt for different materials?

Key Vocabulary
Book based—Author, character, setting, illustrator, blurb
Habitat, environment, locality, Seasons
House, flat, bungalow, caravan, castle, tent, cave, igloo, Inuit
Design, draw, structure, join, bend,
Wood, straw, bricks, metal, plastic, paper, stone
Soft, hard, spiky, sticky, rough, smooth

Sticky Knowledge
We live in Nottingham which is in England.
Names of different buildings in their locality (supermarket, bakery, church, library etc.)
People live in all different kinds of homes (bungalows, flats, cottages, etc.)
Names of different types of materials. (wood, straw, brick, metal etc.)
Some materials are better for building houses with than others.
Facts about Chinese New Year—http://kids.kiddle.co/Chinese_New_Year

Skills to practise

- Ensure letters and numbers are correctly formed.
- Writing simple words.
- Writing lists/labels.
- Retelling stories.
- Recognise and use numbers to 10.
- Ordering numbers.
- One more / one less
- Cutting in straight, wavy and zigzag lines.
- Draw houses and buildings.
- Folding paper and card.